

IIP Insurance Agency is monitoring COVID-19 closely. In the event we need to close our doors to the public, we are still working behind the scenes. During normal business hours, our team will be available by phone and email. Please call with any concerns as most business can be conducted electronically.

Below is a list of the companies we represent should you need to contact them directly or after hours.

We appreciate your understanding during this time and wish you all good health.
